

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a small text file deposited on your device when you visit a website. It enables the site to remember your actions and preferences (such as language, font size, etc.) for a given period, so that you don't have to re-enter them each time you return to the site or navigate from one page to another.

2. What types of cookies do we use?

We use different types of cookies to enhance the user experience:

- Essential cookies: These cookies are necessary to enable our website to function properly.
- Performance cookies: These collect information about how visitors use our site, for example, which pages are consulted most frequently.
- Functional cookies: allow us to remember your choices (e.g. username, language) in order to offer you a more personalized experience.
- Targeting/advertising cookies: These cookies are used to deliver more relevant advertising based on your interests.

3. How do we use cookies?

The cookies we use help us to:

- Remember your browsing preferences and settings.
- Understand how our site is used in order to improve it.
- Offer you personalized advertising based on your interests.

4. Cookie management

You can manage your cookie preferences via your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to :

- View the cookies on your device.
- Delete cookies.
- Block third-party cookies.
- Block all cookies.

Please note that blocking or deleting cookies may affect your browsing experience.

5. Consent

On your first visit to our site, a banner will inform you of the use of cookies. You can accept or refuse their use via this interface.

6. Modification of the charter

We reserve the right to modify this charter at any time. Any modifications will be published on this page and you will be informed of them the next time you visit our site.
